Jesus warns in today's Gospel against greed and storing up of earthly possessions. We, as Christian stewards, know that at the end of our lives, God will ask for an accounting of how we used our God-given gifts of time, talent, and treasure to further His kingdom and help the needy.

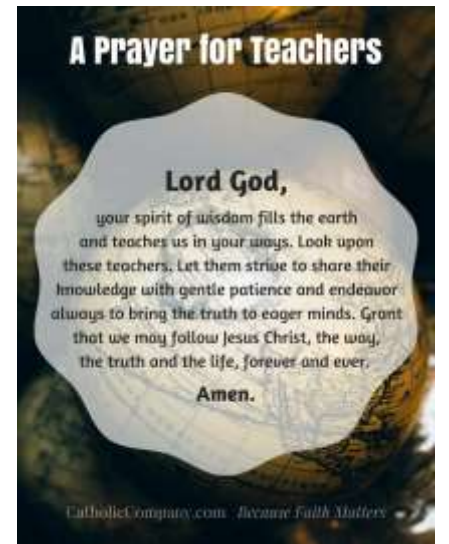

Jesus urges us to be rich in what matters to God.

Don't be a fool!
Be rich toward God.

Altar Flowers are given by Shelley Harrigill in honor of the 34th Wedding Anniversary of her Mom and Dad.

July 30 & 31
After Communion Fr. Mano will have a special blessing for Students, Teachers and School Administrators.
