For The Sick

O God, your Son accepted our sufferings to teach us the virtue of patience in human illness. Hear the prayers we offer for our sick brothers and sisters. May all who suffer pain, illness or disease realize that they are chosen to be saints, and know that they are joined to Christ in his suffering for the salvation of the world, who lives and reigns with you the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Peace Prayer of Saint Francis of Assisi

Lord, make me an instrument of your peace: where there is hatred, let me sow love; where there is injury, pardon; where there is doubt, faith; where there is despair, hope; where there is darkness, light; where there is sadness, joy. O divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console, to be understood as to understand, to be loved as to love. For it is in giving that we receive, it is in pardoning that we are pardoned, and it is in dying that we are born to eternal life. Amen.

National Eucharistic Congress

More than 80,000 Catholics of all ages will gather in Indianapolis, Indiana from July 17 through 21, 2024 to reconsecrate their hearts to the source and summit of our faith. At the heart of our Catholic life is the Passion, Death, Resurrection, and Ascension of Jesus, re-presented to us in the Eucharistic Celebration (Mass). Christ came not only for the redemption of our sins, but he came to instruct us on how to live, how to pray, and most importantly, how to love as he loves us. ETWN will broadcast live from the NEC.

Pray that the outpouring of the Holy Spirit from the NEC will cause all of us to fall more deeply in love with the Eucharist.

It's Time
Sunday, July 14th
Breakfast & Bingo

Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

- He Gave Them Authority: Each of the Apostles was personally called and chosen by Christ after much prayer and discernment. He knew their strengths, talents, qualities, and gifts, and he also knew their weaknesses, failings, and struggles. He also taught and instructed them, assuring them that he would accompany them in spirit by sending them forth in his name.
- Two by Two: Christ sent them out together. He knew that they would lean on each other and find support and encouragement. We are not lone rangers as we week to make Christ's kingdom present in the world. Even Jesus communed with the Holy Spirit as he revealed to people the heart of his Father.
- They Bore Fruit: Jesus was very clear about what he was calling the Apostles to do, and they set off to fulfill his instructions. They drove out demons and miraculously healed many who were sick. The mission unfolded as Christ had predicted, and their obedience, trust and surrender bore fruit. If we discern the path that Christ wants us to follow and we take action, he will bless it. But it takes time to create space for him to reveal that plan, and discernment to intuit the quiet voice of Christ making known how and where he longs to mission alongside us. Let's ask the Lord, "What can I do for you today?" and listen in the stillness for his answer.

Lord, Please allow my small efforts to bear great fruit. Continue to bless those with whom you send me, that we may be a sign of charity and love rooted in friendship with you.

Lord, today by your grace show me if there is someone with whom you want me to mission more often or with a deeper sense of communion.
