For The Sick

O God, your Son accepted our sufferings to teach us the virtue of patience in human illness. Hear the prayers we offer for our sick brothers and sisters. May all who suffer pain, illness or disease realize that they are chosen to be saints, and know that they are joined to Christ in his suffering for the salvation of the world, who lives and reigns with you the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Peace Prayer of Saint Francis of Assisi

Lord, make me an instrument of your peace: where there is hatred, let me sow love; where there is injury, pardon; where there is doubt, faith; where there is despair, hope; where there is darkness, light; where there is sadness, joy. O divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console, to be understood as to understand, to be loved as to love. For it is in giving that we receive, it is in pardoning that we are pardoned, and it is in dying that we are born to eternal life. Amen.

Twenty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time
The gospel focuses on Jesus healing a deaf man in Mark's Gospel. He explains that the physical miracle also has a deeper spiritual meaning, symbolizing our spiritual deafness to God's word due to the distractions of modern culture.
Barron emphasizes that by moving away from these distractions and connecting with Jesus, we can truly hear and articulate God's word. This healing represents the process of evangelization, encouraging us to immerse ourselves in God's teachings and share them clearly with others.
