A Prayer for the United States on Independence Day

Father of all nations and ages,
We recall the day when our country claimed its place among the family of nations;
for what has been achieved we give you thanks,
for the work that still remains we ask your help,
and as you have called us from many peoples to be one nation, grant that, under your providence, our country may share your blessings with all the peoples of the earth.

Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.
Amen.

The Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

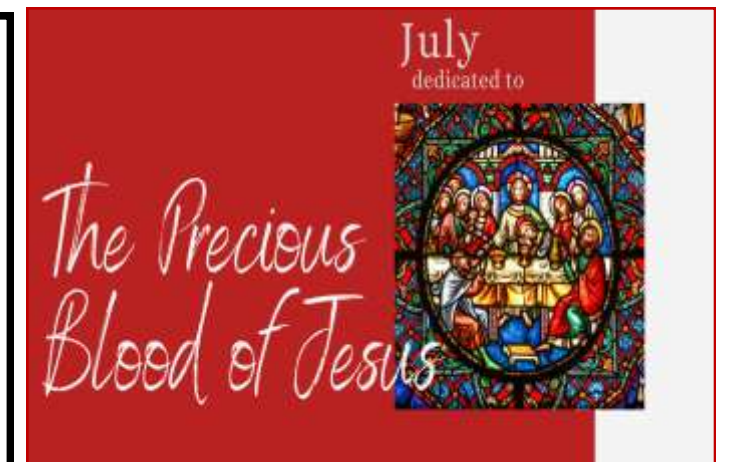

Jesus rejoices at the beginning of today's Gospel passage because at least some of his followers have trusted him enough to accept his teaching and his grace. Many refused—especially the well-educated and the powerful. But many of those who were humble, maybe not so well instructed, maybe not so popular and influential—many of "the little ones" accepted the gift of friendship with God that Jesus came to the world to offer all of us.

And nothing fills Jesus with more joy than when we accept his gift of friendship by trustfully believing in what he taught and following where he leads. It's interesting to think about that: Jesus, the Word of God, the Second Person of the Holy Trinity, experiences joy or sadness in our response to his invitations. This is perhaps the most striking thing about the revelations of the Sacred Heart. When Jesus revealed his heart to St. Margaret Mary in the seventeenth century, thorns encircled it. Whenever someone says no to Jesus, whenever someone refuses to accept his gifts, whenever someone damages themselves and others by choosing to sin, it hurts Jesus. He truly cares. He cares more deeply than we can imagine. How firmly do I believe that? How real is that for me?

July Monthly Devotion The Most Precious Blood of Jesus

July is dedicated to the Most Precious Blood of Jesus. Devotion to the Precious Blood of Christ is connected to devotion to the Passion and Death of Our Lord, since through the shedding of His Blood, mankind was redeemed. St. Paul tells us that Jesus reconciled "to Himself all things, whether on earth or in Heaven, making peace by the blood of the Cross." It ensures our eternal inheritance, grants us life, and washes away our sins. A traditional prayer offered during this month is the Litany of the Most Precious Blood of Jesus. Pray the Divine Mercy Chaplet every day at 3PM during this month to help you remember the "blood and water which gushed forth from the Heart of Jesus as a fountain of mercy for us."
